EXPLANATION

1 23 This bill amends Code section 321J.4, relating to the 1 24 revocation of a defendant's driver's license or nonresident
1 25 operating privilege where the defendant has had a previous 1 26 operating=~~while~~=intoxicated conviction or revocation under 1 27 Code chapter 321J. The bill specifies that a defendant who 1 28 has had such a previous conviction or revocation who submitted
1 29 to chemical testing shall be subject to a one-year driver's
1 30 license or nonresident operating privilege revocation period.
1 31 However, if the defendant refused to submit to chemical 1 32 testing, the defendant shall be subject to a two-year
1 33 revocation period. This change is consistent with the 1 34 revocation periods contained in Code sections 321J.9 and 1 35 321J.12.
